

BOROKO SPORTS FISHING CLUB

CLUB RULES

Definition: Sportsfishing is defined as principal of thought where the skills of the Angler are matched against fish taking into consideration the tackle used, the characteristics of the fish being sought and the environment. In Sportsfishing the emphasis is on fishing skill rather than the killing of fish.

Objectives: The objective of the club is to promote Sportsfishing and encourage the continued development of fishing skills for individual anglers. It is not the clubs intention to promote unsafe or unrealistic fishing practices or to encourage excessive fish kills. The following rules are designed to encourage diversity and fairness between competing anglers as well as encouraging the individual angler to engage in the tremendous variety of fishing tastes Sportsfishing has to offer, it is considered that the greatest rewards go to those who no longer need any reward greater than their own self respect.

Affiliation with Associations

The Club is Affiliated with the International Game Fishing Association (IGFA) and the Game Fishing Association of Papua New Guinea (GFAPNG). It is also recognised that some members may be privately affiliated with the Australian National Sports Fishing Association (ANSA). The Boroko Sports Fishing Club (BSFC) rules have been compiled with reference to the rules of these associations and there may be some Incompatibility between some rules of the said associations. It is not the intention of the BSFC to have an angler fishing by Club rules be disqualified from claiming potential fish capture records from the fore mentioned associations. Where there is incompatibility between a club rule and that of any of the above associations, this may be mentioned under the relevant rule. However it is recommended that those members fishing for either ANSA or IGFA record captures be fully aware of the relevant rules and procedures as the onus for record claims rests with the member.

BSFC ANGLING REGULATIONS

The angler must hook fight and bring the fish to gaff or net unaided by any other person. If a rod holder is used, the angler alone must remove the rod from the rod holder as quickly as possible. No part of the rod or reel may be rested whilst the fish is being played except when using a rod belt, harness, gimbal or chair. Changing of rod or reel, splicing the line, or removal or addition thereto during the playing of a fish is prohibited. In the event of a multiple strike or separate lines being fished with by a single angler, only the first fish fought by the angler will be considered a capture.
